Electricity price differences in the region still suggest the need for further market integration

Net trade is the balance of physical cross-border flows over the country's own demand.

Source: E3G analysis based on ENTSO-E Transparency Platform, May–September 2026 (day-ahead prices, physical cross-border flows, total load) and ERA5 reanalysis via Open-Meteo.